Students need to complete Math, Science, and Composition General Liberal Education requirements before taking 300/400-level classes.

For adding a minor to your degree plan, visit the University Catalog for details on your options.

Note: ENG 101 and MTH 101 will not count towards General Education Requirements for students who started in Spring 2014 or later.

Although every attempt has been made to ensure the accuracy of the information on this sheet, in the event of a discrepancy, the Academic Catalog will be considered the authority.
